

WHITE LAKE.

Correspondence of The Bill Poster.

Some time having passed since we have noticed in your columns anything from this flourishing township, we wish to notice our part of the county and especially brother Grangers. There are numerous here among those of whom we shall speak is Charles P., who has been converted in the Lodge and rode the black goat, and he is a genial fellow, full of fun and Granger polices. Since he joined the Grange he wears No. 12 boots, No. 16 collars, and takes six yards for a pair of pants, and claims he does so because he gets his goods cheap, and wants to get all he can for the money.

Our schools are thriving, and we have a capital writing school under the supervision of Dell. R. Smith, of Pontiac, who is a first-class teacher of the art. He gives two lessons per week to about 30 scholars.

Our day school is under the management of Miss McGrain, who evidently knows how to "teach young ideas how to shoot."
