Advertising Opportunities for

Chronicle magazine

The rates below are for nonprofit organizations only and are already discounted 30% from our regular rates.

Chronicle magazine is the 40-page, full-color membership publication of the Historical Society of Michigan (HSM), the state's oldest cultural organization. Issued quarterly, the magazine contains articles that celebrate Michigan's history and the preservation of the state's diverse cultures and heritages. In addition, Chronicle's special sections provide promotion and awareness for HSM's organizational members and offer ideas and inspiration for individual history advocates.

Chronicle reaches all of HSM's 5,000-plus individual and organizational members, including historical entities and libraries, where it is read by those within the organizations and their patrons, making the pass-along readership more than 20,000. Individual issues of the magazine are also available for purchase through our website. Advertisements within Chronicle are seen by those who are interested in our state's history, the heritage of its residents, and the preservation of Michigan's diverse cultures and historical entities.
