

CHOOSE YOUR GIFT

For those who donate at the Bronze level ($50) or above, the Historical Society of Michigan will send you your choice* of one of the five FREE books listed below as a token of our appreciation!

The rich heritage and rugged beauty of the Upper Peninsula comes alive in Here: Women Writing on Michigan's Upper Peninsula. Filled with diverse voices, this anthology celebrates U.P. women writers and the place they call home. Michigan State University Press • paperback

Apostles of Equality: The Birneys, the Republicans, and the Civil War follows James Gillespie Birney and his family as they navigated through and influenced the politics of the abolition movement, the Civil War, and Reconstruction. Michigan State University Press • hardcover

Featuring stories that cover social, political, and military subjects, Insider Histories of the Vietnam Era Underground Press, Part 1 provides an illuminating look at underground newspapers that spread through the world during the 1960s and 1970s. Michigan State University Press • paperback

Read the histories of more than 160 lighthouses that still exist on Lakes Erie, Huron, Michigan, and Superior in The Northern Lights: Lighthouses of the Upper Great Lakes, which also depicts the region's rich maritime history. Wayne State University Press • hardcover

Privilege and Prejudice: The Life of a Black Pioneer is the autobiography of Clifton R. Wharton Jr., who overcame obstacles, prejudice, and stereotyping to excel in four different careers, including serving as president of Michigan State University. Michigan State University Press • hardcover

For those who donate $191 or more, you will receive a historic map poster OR the book A Picturesque Situation IN ADDITION to your book choice from the above list.

The Straits of Mackinac were a crucial waterway for trading, the military, and those who made the region their home. A Picturesque Situation: Mackinac Before Photography, 1615-1860 reveals the area's fascinating history through maps, drawings, and images. Wayne State University Press • hardcover

In 1952, the Historical Society of Michigan published and copyrighted a historic map of the Great Lakes State drawn by Frank Barcus. This beautiful and intricate "Barcus Map" from our archives has been reprinted and features an updated version of our seal. 24" x 24"

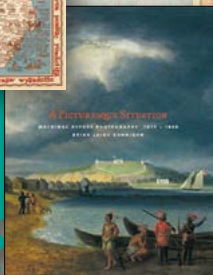

HSM's 1963 "Historic Michigan Map" features illustrations of prominent historical structures, scores of unique Michigan items in their general area of relevance, and a three-color design. The map's artwork was created by Alvin J. Engler of St. Clair Shores. 18" x 24"

Barcus Map

Historic Michigan Map

Why did we choose the number 191 for a donation level? This year, the Historical Society of Michigan will celebrate its 191st birthday! HSM was founded on June 23, 1828, to preserve and promote Michigan's history. And we are still doing that to this day thanks to the support of our members and donors like you.

THANK YOU FOR YOUR SUPPORT!

*Please list your first, second, and third choices for a book on the enclosed reply card, and return it with your donation. Books are on a first-come, first-served basis and have limited quantities. To increase your chances of receiving your favorite book, send in your donation today!